Cover artist:

Kate Jenkins is an artist and designer, celebrated for creating witty and colourful representations of everyday items in yarn and sequins. After a successful freelance career in fashion knitwear design, Kate began her journey as an artist after taking part in the Artists Open Houses in 2007. Working from her Kemptown studio, Kate's creations are inspired by her environment and, particularly, the food we all love to eat. The piece she created for our front cover, the great British seaside's favourite, fish and chips, is a perfect example of her aesthetic.

Artists Open Houses

May 3–26 2025

Each weekend in May brings you the chance to visit artists and makers in over 190 venues across Brighton and Hove, out to the Downland villages of Ditchling, South Heighton and Hurstpierpoint, and along the coast from Portslade to Rottingdean and Ovingdean.

The Artists Open Houses festival provides a unique opportunity to meet artists in their homes and studios, hear about the making of the artwork and buy hand-produced work directly from the artists and makers. Many Open Houses also offer workshops for both adults and children to get involved, learn new skills and explore their creativity.

Highlights this year include AOH brochure cover artist, Kate Jenkins, whose extraordinary and beautiful crocheted food art has been exhibited everywhere from New York to Hong Kong. Several venues offer music, performance and screenings, alongside great sculpture and painting, exploring areas from the subconscious and the provocative, to views of the Sussex Coast and Downs. This year three venues celebrate 25 years of taking part in Artists Open Houses; Dion Salvador Lloyd on the Hove trail, and Frances Doherty and Art at 202, both in Fiveways.

The Artists Open Houses festival encompasses artists of all ages and abilities, from those just starting out on their careers to established artists and makers; school and university students, neurodivergent artists, those with learning disabilities and mental health issues, residents of senior homes, all our welcomed and encouraged to take part.

Visiting the Artists Open Houses presents the perfect opportunity for a great day out, exploring the city and beyond, whilst meeting artists and makers offering creative inspiration alongside homemade cake and tea in artists' homes or gardens. In addition, you can purchase some really great original art and crafts for your home, whilst celebrating and supporting your local creative community. Take a look through our brochure and plan your May weekend festival tours.

Kate Jenkins

2025 Cover Artist

Kate Jenkins is an artist and designer, celebrated for creating witty and colourful representations of everyday items in yarn and sequins. Best known for her knitted and crocheted food, Kate's playful interpretations include everything from loved-up sequined sardines to scowling hot cross buns. No matter where her fertile imagination takes her, humour and warmth are at the heart of all Kate's work, which is why her artworks feature in exhibitions and collections around the world.

After a successful freelance career in fashion knitwear design, Kate began her journey as an artist after taking part in the Artist's Open House in 2007. Working from her Kemptown studio, Kate's creations are inspired by her environment and, particularly, the food we all love to eat. The piece she created for our front cover, the great British seaside's favourite, fish and chips, is a perfect example of her aesthetic.

Using the language of food, Kate's work spans different media and speaks to a global audience. Original artworks, illustrations for publications and mobile installations including a knitted and crocheted garden, a bakery and ice cream parlour, to name just a few examples, have appeared everywhere from Barcelona to Hong Kong, from New York to an award-winning 3-month solo show at the Rijswijk Museum in the Netherlands.

Kate regularly receives commissions and has worked with Chanel, Waitrose, the Royal Mail and fashion label, Anthropologie. Most recently, she was artist-in-residence on a Viking Cruise ship as it sailed around the Mediterranean. This year, Kate's famous knitted and crocheted fish counter has travelled to the glamorous surroundings of the Café de Paris in Monte Carlo after overwhelming response around the world following her Fishy Business show London 2024. Wherever her exquisite creations appear, Kate's motivation is the same, "Above all, I want my work to make people smile."

8 Alej ez Art People and Places

Flat 5, 16 Brunswick Square, Hove, BN3 1EH

Sheltering from the Sun Brighton Seafront: alej ez

People and Places – Revelations of Love.

The landscapes I love to depict in my work are often populated with people, but somehow not shown and 'behind the camera'. For the first time, I am moving these companions in focus to give them the merit that they own. Out of love, I show friends, partners, passers-by and myself too; in and outdoors. With vibrant energetic colours I am revisiting buildings I love; coastal scenes, city escapes and the stunning Sussex countryside. An artist's life journey.

On The Beach (sculpture) and The Gentle Giant (drawing): Charles Gore

I am a self-taught artist strongly influenced by the methods of Kimon Nicolaides. I always work from the model. My intention is not to reproduce a likeness but to bring the being of a subject to life. The results are never predictable. Indeed, the translation of the intention behind each mark on paper to the final image remains a mystery to me. This exhibition includes watercolour paintings, drawings and sculptures. All welcome!!

Mackenzie is a queer artist and actor. As a visual artist he works predominantly in drawing, painting and photography. His quirky and often allegorical style draws as much from the history of landscape painting as it does from carnival and protest and propaganda. Mackenzie explores (sub)urban dystopia, repression and body politics, capitalism, consumption and what these things leave behind.

Fiveways was the first trail, before the idea even existed! Back in 1981, local artist Ned Hoskins founded the whole Open House movement with Five at Fiveways. While Ned is sadly no longer with us, his work will be represented in one of the Fiveways venues. Once again, Fiveways presents a wide range of exceptional art and craft across many disciplines. We have four new venues: Amber Elise, Preludes, Art House by the Post Box and Cherry Tree Bungalow; while Frances Doherty and Polly Raines each celebrate their 25th year of opening, our longest standing venues.

View of Cape Cornwall from Kenidjack: Angela Harrison

A dramatic rugged landscape poised on the edge of the Atlantic Ocean at the most westerly tip of England, scarred with the remains of Cornwall's mining heritage; scattered cairns, burial sites and stone circles speak of earlier civilisations who worshiped the seasons, the sun and the moon.

Yvonne Coomber Painting

Internationally acclaimed artist Yvonne Coomber creates a joyful, rainbow drenched dance around the canvas. Her pieces are held in collections nationally and worldwide. She is a renowned ambassador for the protection of wildflowers and has collaborated with many charities and organisations including The Eden Project, the BBC and The National Trust.

Speaking of her paintings she says, "I am both a romantic and a believer. I work intuitively, creating a space in which I allow the image to evolve and unravel. My practice demands that I am openhearted and it always involves risk. It is an eternal search for truth. I feel things with a burning intensity and my canvas provides a container for these huge emotions. My work sings of tumbling hedgerows, tangled meadowlands and open moorlands. My intention is to transport the viewer to a place that is literally saturated in joy. Where dreams are born.

Highest quality oil paints are applied in a multitude of layers. The alchemy of techniques result in a prismatic jewel-like composition of rich pigments that reveal the radiance of nature, I always paint in nature and the elements, in a very direct way, dictate how and where the paint falls. Lacy ice and strong winds have as much influence on the final painting as golden sunshine and gentle breezes.

I pour my heart and soul into each image and the canvases sparkle with love. Ultimately my practice is a prayer and a surrender. A place where the mystery unfolds. My paintings are a celebration of all that is good in the world."

A must see!

7 FAYE BRIDGWATER

Faye Bridgwater in her studio

Hello, hello! A warm welcome to my home and garden studio. If you love bold, uplifting art, a peek inside a working artist's studio, and a good old chat – then my home is a must-visit! In a moment of artistic enthusiasm (or total madness!), I've signed up for all four weekends of Artists Open Houses.

A Whirlwind Year!

It's been an exciting one. I had the absolute honour of being invited back to Saatchi Gallery for Flowers – Flora in Contemporary Art and Culture, my prints are now in John Lewis, and I exhibited at Middle Temple too! Then there was November Squares, my creative challenge. Using my Sketch Squares tool, people around the world explored playful daily prompts and experimented with ideas. The best part? We're doing it all again in November 2025 – so pick up a Sketch Square when you visit.

What's Waiting For You:

- Step inside my paint-covered studio and see where the magic happens
- Walls filled with original paintings
- Hand-finished, limited-edition prints
- An exciting new range of 68 greetings cards – build your own pick and mix box!
- Sketch Squares! Take one home, play with ideas, and join me in November for another month of creativity!

When and Where:

- Open the first four weekends in May, 10am – 5pm
- Near Queen's Park – 25 minutes walk from the station, 15 minutes to the seafront, or a short hop on the 18, 21, or 2 bus. On-street metered parking available.
- If you can't make those dates, please drop me an email—we'll find a time and date that works!

Want a sneak peek before Open Houses even begins? Sign up for my mailing list and be the first to see new work, hear exciting news, and get exclusive updates.

I can't wait to welcome you in. See you soon!

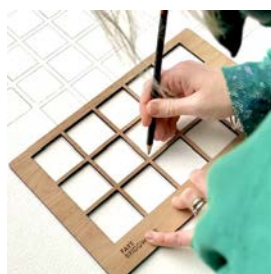

Love & blue skies,

7 THE WALKER GALLERY

10 Queens PLace, Queens Place, Hove, BN3 2LT

Excuse Me

Andy Walker graduated from Liverpool John Moores University with a degree in Fine Art in 1994. Since then he has called Brighton his home where he explores the interplay of chaos and calm in his abstract paintings. Using various media, Walker creates larger-than-life artworks that capture the tension between disorder and serenity. In the realm of mark-making, chaos and simplicity converge to deconstruct the human figure, allowing marks to symbolise our essence, our insignificance and our magic.

Three Children Jumping Rope at Seaside; Rex Ashlock

This Open House is dedicated to Rex Ashlock (1918-1999), an American artist who worked and taught in New York and California, with family in Sussex since 1978. Following the recent sale of many larger oil paintings at auction in the U.S., we are opening for a fourth year, showing mostly smaller works from across his life, many not previously exhibited. There will be sea scenes, animals, nudes and colourful abstracts, among other subjects.

4 Abigail Bowen

22 Clifton Street, Brighton, BN1 3PH

My; Abigail Bowen

I like to say I paint 'The Edge of The Rainbow'. This phrase comes from The Goldfinch, by Donna Tartt as she expresses her longing for a place just beyond reality, where all art and magic exists. This is the space I'm trying to capture. It's somewhere beautiful, but, like a rainbow it always remains just out of reach and impossible to capture.

I was born in Brighton and graduated in Fine Art, Painting from Chelsea School of Art.

5 Chanchala

41 Buckingham Road, Brighton, BN1 3RP

Waking Dream: Chanchala

My collection this year is titled Colour Fields and Dusk – an exploration of colour through abstraction: the interplay of translucency and opacity; the wonderful ways colour interacts; how colour conveys meaning and influences emotions. This series was further inspired by my taking up running along the seafront at sunset. My whimsical florals this year are also colour focused. If you love colour, this is a must-visit!

acrylic and oil colours. I combine painting and printmaking techniques to create my artworks. Drop in, have a look and don't be shy to have a chat.

11 Claire O'Hea

2 Windlesham Gardens, Brighton, BN1 3AJ

Time Bomb: Claire O'Hea

An unknown river melts in a remote half frozen place. Folded buds wrapped in semi-transparent mantles cautiously open as the ground begins to thaw. The wintering earth has finished feeding on the lives of yesteryear. Its very being rejoices as it cascades once more over smooth worn rock. The smallest of unseen things respond to the subtle shift of light. An invisible being observes the sun as it returns to cast its shadows on the tiniest of flowers.

Across the Field: Graham Davy

I am a landscape architect turned landscape artist. My paintings are representational with a combination of semi abstraction and not an exact copy of what I see. My aim is not to render forms in any detail but instead I record them as coloured shapes. My colours are also a reinterpretation or an exaggeration of colours to add a visual joy to the scene.

SAVE THE OLD MARKET

In 2025 our building turns 200, and The Old Market Charitable Trust celebrates one year as a charity!

Independent grassroots venues are facing unprecedented times, and it feels like not a day goes past without a local institution or hidden gem being lost.

We need to raise £100,000 by December 2025 in order to meet urgent upgrade needs and secure our long-term financial position.

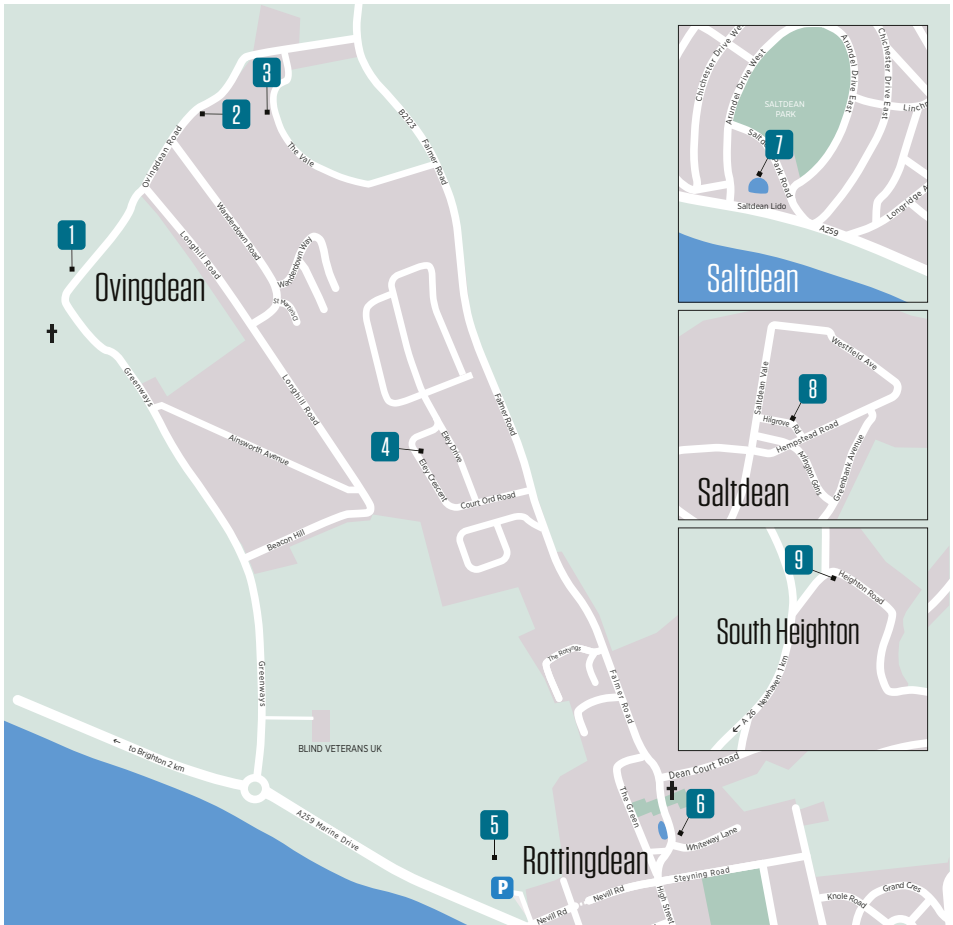

We've always been shy about directly asking our community for support, but in 2025 we are asking you to consider giving us a birthday present we won't forget!

TEAM TOM X

YOU CAN FIND OUT MORE & GIVE HERE: WWW.THEOLDMARKET.COM/BIRTHDAY

Trap Three Band Diamond Ring Satin Finish
Pruden and Smith

Forged Gold Diamond Cuff Bangle
Pruden and Smith

Pruden and Smith create luxury and bespoke jewellery that blends a rich goldsmithing tradition with nature-inspired designs. Founded in 1988 and located in the Arts and Crafts village of Ditchling, their gallery showcases rugged textures and graceful curves, all handmade in their onsite workshop.

The Trap (Sussex Shore)
collection draws inspiration from the organic contours of the Sussex landscape and the gradual, natural erosion seen along the chalk cliffs of the Seven Sisters. Diamonds and sapphires emulate the forms of pebbles trapped in the distinctive chalk beds and wooden groynes of Birling Gap and Cuckmere Haven. Hammering techniques create these undulating structures in recycled gold and platinum. The collection celebrates the incidental beauty of the Sussex shoreline with Pruden and Smith's signature raw, geological aesthetic.

Take a workshop tour to explore the methodology behind the collection and discover how to transform your old jewellery through their redesign service.
