Artists Open Houses

WEEKENDS AND BANK HOLIDAYS
30 APRIL-30 MAY

Each weekend in May, artists in Brighton, Hove, Ditchling and coast, throw open their homes and studios to bring you everything from sculpture and painting to jewellery, ceramics and textiles. More than 1,000 artists exhibit their work in venues citywide and in the surrounding area, providing art lovers with an engaging and inspiring experience and offering the opportunity to buy work and chat directly with the creators. This year over 60 new Open Houses will be taking part for the first time.

A majority of Open House venues belong to one of 14 Open House Trails, which cover different areas of the city and beyond; there are also non-trail or independent Open Houses in many areas. Trails are geographically grouped and houses are usually within walking distance of each other. Entry is free – and many Open Houses offer homemade tea and cake.

The Artists Open Houses is an inclusive open to all event, welcoming participation from all areas of the community, including community groups, marginalized, school and college student artists.

This year, be sure to look out for our children's competition, devised by AOH headline sponsors

ARCH angel Architects: ARCH angel have selected a house from each trail that has some interesting architectural or design feature. Families are invited to visit these houses and children can devise their 'dream home' from inspiration acquired there. Look out for houses marked with a purple dot in the trail listings. Winners will receive a prize of a Lego Building Set and Lego Architecture Set for younger and older children respectively (see page 52 for details).

Brunswick Town Trail

Welcome to Brunswick Town Trail, which can be found on the seaside boundary of Brighton and Hove. The trail showcases a range of high quality art, design and craft in houses, studios, workshops, a gallery, and a health centre.

Make a day of it to meet the artists and makers, explore the historically and architecturally fascinating Brunswick Town Conservation Area as well as visiting the seafront for a blast of fresh sea air. As a distraction from the Trail there are a number of lovely local pubs and cafes offering delicious refreshments.

We have created a Brunswick Town Trail map to help you find your way about so please pick one up from one of the houses on the trail.

Travel information

Bus Catch any bus running towards Western Road and you will quickly find yourself in the heart the trail. (1, 1A, 2, 2A, 5, 5A, 5B, 6, 24, 25, 46, 49, 49A, 81). From Brighton train station, just hop on the number 6 bus towards Hove.

Car Pay by phone parking is available on most streets in the area.

Better still walk, bike or skate your way along the seafront to just beyond the West Pier.

1 Constable's Studio

11 Sillwood Road Brighton BN1 2LF
Njikissell@aol.com | 07482 188207

Dead Romantic?
Four Brighton artists each interpret a Romantic Era painting, against the background of Constable's Brighton lodgings.

Gregory Smart's carnivalesque etchings draw on his circus upbringing and recent adventures in Brazil, conjuring a world where reality and dream conflate, with a William Blake inspired cocktail of magic realism.

Peter Harrap's paintings and prints explore material equivalence and interpret Constable through drawing parallels between scarred bodies and tree arborglyphs.

Natasha Kissell's sublime landscapes hint at loss and longing, reflecting on Caspar David Friedrich.

Amy Alderson's figure paintings draw on her theatrical upbringing; part glamour, part grime; the dream of success and reality of the everyday, the paintings explore the compositions of Eugene Delacroix and colour of Odilon Redon.

The Central Trail spans works across photography, painting, sculpture, screen print, holistic art and more.

Travel information

Portrait to artist Patrick O'Donnell, Dawei Zhang

A joint exhibition over 2 floors by Brighton artists Patrick O'Donnell and Dawei Zhang, featuring recent works upstairs and a veritable Aladdin's cave of work by both artists, spanning the last ten years, downstairs. The exhibition will also feature a specially created collaborative work inspired by their love of table tennis.

An accompanying film by Manel Ortega documenting the process will be shown at the launch.

Dawei will be showing recent figurative graphite drawings following an intense year of re-engaging with drawing practice. This reduced monochromatic palette follows a 10 year period of colour exploration through his painting.

Patrick will be showing his new collection of paintings prompted by the recent imagery of Pluto beamed back from Nasa's New Horizons probe - and how images from popular culture are filtered through the painting process.

unframed Harasavidou

Sarcopoterium Spinosum. This plant has inspired an artist and a poet both through its form and myth. An organic explosion of spines of binary symmetry create a natural fortress where bright red fleshy balls, protected from goats, thrive. Its roots have aphrodisiac properties, hibernating during droughts, it revives and saves the soil from erosion. When Mars was chasing Adonis Aphrodite, rushing to his rescue he stepped on the shrub and gave its fruit the colour of her blood. The crown of thorns and Oscar Wilde's The Nightingale And The Rose have similar imagery.

Dumfries: Stuart J Bullen

We show art in our bright spacious home and open sunny sculpture garden and are an established part of the Fiveways artists group. As well as painting, printmaking and textiles, this year's show features five ceramicists, and three sculptors. Two of the sculptors, Johanna Häiväoja and Paolo Faber are from artists group Les Amis de la Linerie in Normandy.

Stuart is an established print-maker, also specialising in hand-made paper and life drawing.

Mark is a photographer who loves landscapes, the sea, woodland, and much else. His work is inspired by thinking about the environment and climate change. He loves the play of light on water and landscape.

Fiveways Gallery

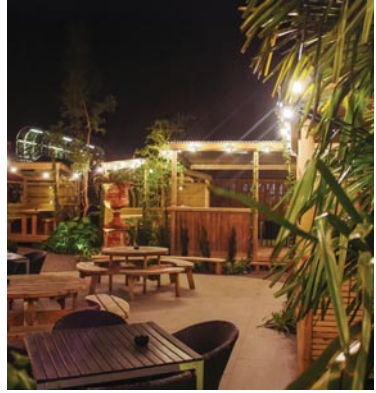

A large, stylish pub located next to London Road station, The Open House hosts a gallery curated by the Fiveways Artists Group, exhibiting works by many of the group's artists. In addition to the Fiveways Gallery, there are two other bar areas, an upstairs performance space and one of the largest and most attractive pub gardens in the city. The delicious food, served daily from midday to 9pm, ranges from light bites to lunches to evening meals and uses fresh, Sussex sourced ingredients. The pub is relaxed and child-friendly by day, and by night is lively and bustling, with occasional DJs, live music, theatre and improvised comedy. Located in the heart of the Fiveways Art trail and only a

3 minute rail journey to the city centre, the Open House is both a great place to view original art and the perfect place to take a break from the festival trail.

The friendly and welcoming Open House staff, very much look forward to hosting all lovers of Fiveways art at this year's May festival.

Collaborative magic by Pozas & Dejez

Spanish artist A.Pozas creates stunning monochromatic paintings, based on an expression of inner artistic battles. Versatile and conceptual artwork with complex social commentary, which explores themes of diversity and identity.

Melbourne artist Dejez is inspired by the dynamic chaos of open-air marketplaces. Drawn by street observation, she aims to capture fleeting moments of vividly colourful movement within eclectically diverse cultural landscapes.

Two passionate artists. One colourful space. Welcome to our mad house of creative expression.

Lights at Low Tide (oil), Cecil Rice

Cecil Rice, Sunrise Bandstand, Hove

A sparkling selection of thirty original paintings by Cecil Rice in oils and watercolour, including the piers at Brighton, Sussex landscape, the fading beauty of Venice and the Lake Palace of Udaipur, Rajasthan. Cecil's hand is instantly recognisable, yet his style is constantly evolving, producing this years' dynamic range, a collection of work fusing traditional representation and abstraction. With an eye for atmosphere, light and colour, Cecil's works are timeless and widely collected.

There is also an accompanying selection of fine limited-edition silkscreen and giclee prints.

Come and see the show and meet the artist at his home-studio in Seven Dials, Brighton – just 7 minutes walk from Brighton station.

www.keetleyart.com | thesuper8@keetleyart.com | 07821 810693

The Super-Eight is eight artists coming together for the first time to present an exhibition featuring a mix of rich and varied artworks, ranging from 60's vintage pin-up film photography to modern abstract oils, all from a group of creative minds firmly grounded in the present. Experience 70's punk ejaculation, The Legendary Shagpile. Observe with the lens and the brush as seen through the eyes and philosophies of The Super-Eight. Share for a moment in the artists' discipline, desire, drive and determination to create.

Selected Works: Mel Hickmore

Kant Rathod

Is a fine art photographer, his images combine strong composition, light and personality. Kant's inspirational work challenges the viewer to see beyond the norm. It's not what you see, but how you see it. TANKphotography.co.uk

Sam Keetley

My current work – colour-focused acrylics on canvas – is inspired by the exploration of both natural and man-made patterns and textures that I have discovered across the UK and Europe.

Melanie Hickmore

A selection of images inspired by the story's and myths told in Women who run with wolves – Contacting the power of the wild woman by Clarissa Pinkola Estes.

Stan Keetley

Stan's work doesn't just ask you to challenge your thoughts about normal female body shapes, it practically slams your face in it, with examples of real and beautiful human femininity. stankeetley.com

Evolution: Kant Rathod

Untitled #45: Lucianna Whittaker

Untitled: Mark Seccombe

Lucianna Whittaker

Abstract oil paintings inspired by the sublime and concerned with revelations. A depth of light and a call to be present. Artwork to be encountered on a massive or miniature scale.

Mark Seccombe

A mixed media salute to joyful childhood and the siren song that echoes in the memories of those who have lived in the heartbeat of the fragrant harbour.

Cakes and refreshments will be available!

The Legendary Shagpile

Display of rare record covers and other memorabilia of 70's pop-punk band The Legendary Shagpile. Includes music CDs for a quid. Curator Tom Hickmore.

George Victor Keetley

Medium format film photography. Dark contrast grainy uncensored film photography of the iconic British pin-up curvy models of yesteryear. keetleyart.com

Morning Tunes (detail), Bernard G Mills

Bernard G Mills is a fine-art photographer. However, in the open house, he will be showing paintings—each of which is an individual elements of a greater whole. Each painting, when completed, becomes part of a larger work entitled Morning Tunes. All tunes are ones that have been in the artist's head on waking in the mornings over the past five years. Style, content and concept are dependent on the particular tune to which the painting refers but a degree of uniformity is determined by both dimensional conformity and the use of Liquitex acrylic.

Sunset over the lavender fields at Soudes: Geoff Bailey

West and Bailey have collaborated to create a collection of works that explore the aesthetic qualities of weight, balance and the potential energy these states suggest visually. They experiment with the potential energy in static or heavy materials, encouraging a heightened sense that is out of the norm, by playing with our knowledge of weight and drop within a space. Contradiction and juxtaposition between weight and material is a strong element to their work and style.

This is their first joint exhibition since graduating in Fine Art.

Marquise sapphire trilogy ring with fitted wedding ring;
Rebecca Smith

Since 1988 Pruden and Smith have been designing and making precious jewellery and silverware with a difference. Their unique background, along with great craftsmanship experience, ensure the very best in contemporary design.

Anton Pruden is the grandson of Dunstan Pruden, the silversmith on Eric Gill's renowned Guild of St. Joseph and St. Dominic on Ditchling Common. Rebecca Smith originally trained as a painter and there is a recognizable freedom of expression in her designs. She runs a very specialist design service: in their recently refurbished gallery and workshop their work in platinum, diamonds, gold and silver can be seen as a starting point for commissioning that special one-off piece for your loved one.

Make it a day out: combine a visit to the world-famous Ditchling Museum of Art + Craft, which showcases Dunstan Pruden's work and tools, with a Pruden and Smith workshop tour to see how it is done today. And the pubs are excellent too!

In its first year in the Open Houses Festival, Casa Latina brings Chicha by Blend.

A fantastic and innovative opportunity to enjoy latin-american art in Brighton through a group of artists, Blend, who promote Peruvian art and culture worldwide with a social complement, this time bringing the concept Chicha.

This group of artists led by local artist Ursula Vargas, shows the diverse and mixed Chicha culture, its meaning and social impact, through different media by various artists at this 50's period style semi-detached house, close to the sea in Rottingdean Village, where she has lived and worked for the last couple of years.
